IRN Partnership Terms & Conditions

1. All event material is confidential and is intended only for the person(s) or entity to which it is addressed and not to be transmitted to any external parties unless otherwise stated.
2. Any printed or electronic document, advertisement, promotion material, or communication which is published or distributed about the event or the Event Organizers IRN is to be sent to the latter.
3. Violating this confidentiality notice with actions such as publishing the agenda or transmitting it to other commercial entities, etc. will lead to the termination of this agreement.
4. We agree to distribute your publications provided they will be sent latest 1 day before the dates that the event is taking place at the venue of the summit, informing our company prior to dispatching the material. Material that will be exclusively promoting other events won't be displayed.
5. Amount of discount not applicable with any other discounts or offers (including the early bird).
6. The complimentary passes offered to your company can be used only for permanent employees of your company and part-time/freelance journalists attending to cover the summit. Due to a conflict of interest, complementary passes offered to your company cannot be used by any external parties to your company (such as your clients or industry contacts).
